HORSHAM

Set in beautiful countryside, the award-winning market town of Horsham is a friendly and welcoming environment for international high school students. The bustling centre has been a traditional market area for centuries and still enjoys thriving markets for food and local arts and crafts several times a week.

Horsham is the perfect place for students to do some shopping, meet friends, eat out and visit local attractions in their spare time. In addition, the town is home to a museum, a nature reserve, and stunning parklands. With fantastic transport links to London and Brighton, Horsham is also ideally situated for students who want to explore nearby cities on the weekends.

COLLYER'S: HOME TO THE WEST SUSSEX MUSIC ACADEMY

A Level Music students at Collyer's will automatically be part of the West Sussex Music Academy which is run in partnership with West Sussex Music. As part of this relationship, the college has drawn together a list of specialist instrumental and vocal teachers who are able to offer advanced tuition with a particular focus on preparation for A Level recitals. As members of the West Sussex Music Academy, students will be entitled to a discounted rate with one of these specialist teachers, equivalent to 10 free lessons per academic year.

WHY CHOOSE THE COLLEGE OF RICHARD COLLYER?

OUTSTANDING EXAM RESULTS

Collyer's is ranked the 3rd best Sixth Form college in the country for A Levels by the UK Department for Education. It is, by a clear margin, the top state Sixth Form in the local area and is an OFSTED Grade 1 'Outstanding' Sixth Form college.

STATE-OF-THE-ART FACILITIES

The college site is a fusion of historic buildings combined with modern buildings, creating a spacious and inspiring place to learn. Facilities include a large library, a sports centre for basketball, badminton and table tennis, a student gym, outdoor courts for netball and hockey, football and rugby pitches, art studios, performing arts spaces, and studios for photography and media.

EXCELLENT PROGRESSION SUPPORT

Collyer's students have access to excellent progression advice, with dedicated members of staff advising on university applications including Oxbridge applications. Once they leave school, 88% of the school's alumni gain a 1st or a 2:1 at university. This places Collyer's graduates ahead of the private school sector average, and significantly ahead of the state (public) sector.
